SUBJECT: Draft Environmental Assessment (EA) for the Proposed Expansion of the Army National Guard Readiness Center, Arlington, Virginia.

Ms. Heidi Wicker
BSCL President

Ms. Wicker:

You are cordially invited to attend a public meeting on Tuesday, March 11, 2008 from 6:30-8 p.m. at the Masonic Lodge, 1 South George Mason Drive, Arlington, hosted by the Army National Guard. The purpose is an informational exchange regarding the proposed building expansion of the Army National Guard Readiness Center, located at 111 South George Mason Drive, Arlington. The proposed expansion will accommodate approximately 1200 personnel who will be vacating government leased buildings in accordance with the Base Realignment and Closure implementation plan. The expansion includes proposed transportation plans, a multi-level parking garage and a 250,000 square foot (multi-level) Readiness Center building addition. This will be the second public meeting for this project.
