NEXT MEETING: COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION SCHEDULED!!

The December meeting of the Association (Thursday, December 7th at the Barcroft Community House, 2nd and Buchanan Streets, 8PM) will be almost exclusively a festive event with entertainment by members of the Wakefield High School Band and group caroling. Cookies, coffee and other light refreshments will be served. PLEASE COME--all are welcome, including the children for which special surprises are planned.

HIGHLIGHTS OF NOVEMBER 2ND MEETING:

Approximately 40 persons attended our last meeting and observed a very interesting and important demonstration of Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) methods by a representative of the Arlington Red Cross. Additionally, a proposal then before the County Board to convert the old Duke's Photographics premises on Columbia Pike into a combined dancing and restaurant facility, was debated and explained by the owner, Mr. Biaz (the Board subsequently approved the use of the premises as a restaurant exclusively).

CITIZEN NOMINATIONS FOR COUNTY BOARD ADVISORY COMMISSIONS SOUGHT.

The County Board has over 30 official citizen groups that advise in its decision-making. Most members are appointed by the Board and applications from interested citizens are now being accepted. If you would like to be considered, contact the Board Office, Room 201, Court House, Arlington 22201 (558-2261) and request a Citizen Advisory Group Application. The terms of over 80 current members will be up before or on 7/31/79 and vacancies will be filled on the fol-

HIGH BARCROFT PARTICIPATION IN NOVEMBER 7TH ELECTIONS!

The unusually mild weather and several exciting races apparently contributed to an exceptional turnout on the part of Barcroft precinct voters. Of Barcroft's 1869 registered voters, 62.9% actually cast ballots compared to 58.6% in the 1977 elections. Overall, 58.3% of Arlington's eligibles went to the polls this year, up from 54.7% last year.

The results of the various races in Barcroft precinct follow:

SENATE: Miller 616 Warner 483
HOUSE: Fisher 581 Wolf 510
BOARD: Detwiler 535 Gardiner 20 Pelton 533
